4	Motion submitted by Cllr. John Lyons "As part of the decade of Commemorations, Dublin City Council to organise a series of public talks, lectures, panel discussions and exhibitions in 2017 to mark the centenary of the Russian Revolution, an event of world historical importance, exploring not only its initial successes and ultimate failures, but exploring also the emancipatory achievements of the revolution such as granting women the right to vote and contest elections, the legalisation of abortion and the repealing of laws outlawing homosexuality; and to explore also the political and cultural links between Revolutionary Russia and Revolutionary Ireland during the period beginning in 1917" A working sub-group to be established from this SPC to liaise with Dublin City Council Libraries to assist in the creation of a programme of events.
5	Motion referred from City Council meeting 9th January 2017 "This Committee calls on Dublin City Council's Sports Section to immediately suspend the excessive increase in the cost of the Passport for Leisure due to begin in January 2017, until Councillors are given an opportunity to discuss the issue. An increase of almost 100% for over 55's is unacceptable and such decisions should be made by the relevant SPC". a) Motion submitted in the name of Cllr N. Ring, Cllr C. Perry, Cllr C. Cuffe

“Having regard to last Monday evening’s Emergency Motion referred to this SPC in relation to the Passport for Leisure Scheme, this SPC agrees that the proposed price increase be cut by 50% for 2017 and that the remainder of the increase be deferred pending the outcome of discussions with the other Dublin authorities, benefiting but not yet participating in the scheme”.
