APPENDIX 17

GUIDELINES FOR RESIDENTIAL EXTENSIONS

APPENDIX 17 – GUIDELINES FOR RESIDENTIAL EXTENSIONS

17.1 Introduction

These guidelines contain general advice and design principles for residential extensions. The Planning and Development Regulations, 2001, (as amended) give exemptions for the construction of extensions to residential dwellings and there is a wide range of works which will fall within these exempted development provisions. The applicant's architect or agent should be able to advise on the extent of these exemptions and whether proposed works would require planning permission to be obtained.

Given the wide variety of house types and styles within Dublin city, it is not possible to deal with every type of addition. Rather, this document sets out a number of general principles that should be addressed in all cases and which will be applied by the planning authority in assessing applications for permission.

The guidelines should be interpreted in the context of the Development Plan Core Strategy, which promotes a compact city, sustainable neighbourhoods and areas where a wide range of families can live.

17.2 General Principles

New extensions, whether they are single or two-storey, have an effect on their immediate environment and accordingly the following general principles should be addressed in all proposals for extension. Proposals should:

- Not have an adverse impact on the scale and character of the dwelling.
- Have no unacceptable effect on the amenities enjoyed by the occupants of adjacent buildings in terms of privacy and access to daylight and sunlight.
- Achieve a high quality of design.

The following sections of this guidance document feature these principles in greater detail.

17.3 Residential Amenity Issues

It is important to make sure that any extension does not unacceptably affect the amenities of neighbouring properties. This includes privacy, outlook, daylight and sunlight. It is advisable to discuss your proposal with your neighbours prior to submitting a planning application.

17.4 Privacy

Extensions should not result in any significant loss of privacy to the residents of adjoining properties. Generally, windows overlooking adjoining properties (such as in a side wall) should be avoided. Where essential, the size of such windows should be kept as small as possible and consideration should be given to the use of high-level windows and/or the use of obscure glazing where the window serves a bathroom or landing.

Balconies will only be allowed where they are well screened and do not adversely overlook adjoining properties. The use of the roofs of flat-roof extensions as balconies can often lead to problems of overlooking.

17.5 Relationship Between Dwellings and Extensions

In cases where the backs of dwellings face each other or where the side of one dwelling faces the rear of a neighbouring property, a certain degree of separation is required to avoid any overbearing effect of one dwelling upon the other. With the emphasis on increased residential densities and the consequent incorporation of a variety of unit types and sizes in schemes, the requirement for 22-m separation in such cases may no longer be applicable in all instances.

The acceptable reduction of such distances, however, requires a high standard of building design and layout particularly having regard to the height and inter-relationship between buildings, the use and aspect of rooms and relative floor levels. The exact distances applicable in such cases will be determined on a case-by-case basis having regard to the above criteria and other relevant development plan standards.

The planning system does not give neighbours 'a right to a view' and does not always prevent people's view from being blocked. However, extensions should be designed so as not to dominate or appear overbearing when viewed from adjoining properties.

17.6 Daylight and Sunlight

Large single or two-storey rear extensions to semi-detached or terraced dwellings can, if they project too far from the main rear elevation, result in a loss of daylight to neighbouring houses. Furthermore, depending on orientation, such extensions can have a serious impact on the amount of sunlight received by adjoining properties.

Consideration should be given to the proportion of extensions, height and design of roofs as well as taking account of the position of windows including rooms they serve to adjacent or adjoining dwellings.

17.7 Appearance

Most houses were originally designed and built as completed entities and did not take account of any need to incorporate future extensions. It is therefore necessary when considering the design of an extension to take account of the following criteria:

- The extension should not dominate the existing building and should normally be of an overall shape and size to harmonise with the existing house and adjoining buildings; the original appearance should be the reference point for any consideration of change that may be desired.
- The materials used should ideally be the same as those used on the existing building; features such as windows and doors on the new extension should relate to those on the original building in terms of proportion.
- Extensions to the front, which significantly break the building line, should be resisted.

17.8 Subordinate Approach

The subordinate approach means that the extension plays more of a 'supporting role' to the original dwelling. In general, the extension should be no larger or higher than the existing.

17.9 Materials

Care should be taken in all extensions to ensure that the new extensions integrate with the original building as far as possible. In addition to appropriate form and scale, the maximum use of matching materials between old and new will greatly assist this integration.

Considerable care and thought should be given to materials, which harmonise with the existing building and consideration should be given to the changes which occur in their appearances due to age and weathering. The illustrations shown below give an example of how to integrate a new extension successfully with the original building.

A minimalist contemporary box style may be acceptable.

17.10 Contemporary Extensions

Although the general advice in this document is to match the existing building and to fit in with the neighbourhood, Dublin City Council also supports good contemporary designs. A contemporary or modern approach, providing unique designs, can offer a more imaginative solution to an unusual dwelling type or a contrast to a traditional building and are still required to take account of the design issues outlined in this document. Contemporary solutions should not detract from the character of an area and undeniably, if well designed, can make a positive contribution to the streetscape and the character of the area.

17.11 Roof Extensions

The roofline of a building is one of its most dominant features and it is important that any proposal to change the shape, pitch, cladding or ornament of a roof is carefully considered. If not treated sympathetically, dormer extensions can cause problems for immediate neighbours and in the way a street is viewed as a whole.

When extending in the roof, the following principles should be observed:

- The design of the dormer should reflect the character of the area, the surrounding buildings and the age and appearance of the existing building.
- Dormer windows should be visually subordinate to the roof slope, enabling a large proportion of the original roof to remain visible.
- Any new window should relate to the shape, size, position and design of the existing doors and windows on the lower floors.
- Roof materials should be covered in materials that match or complement the main building.
- Dormer windows should be set back from the eaves level to minimise their visual impact and reduce the potential for overlooking of adjoining properties.

17.12 Porches

It is important to try to avoid abutting porches close to existing windows, and where front doors are paired, a joint scheme with the neighbouring owner should be considered. The design should complement the main house.

17.13 Sustainable Design

Dublin City Council encourages and supports a sustainable approach to new build, alterations and extensions. Extending your home provides an ample opportunity to incorporate sustainability into your scheme. Practices such as the re-use of building materials, e.g. roof tiles/slates and bricks, increased insulation and rainwater harvesting techniques, to name but a few, will improve the environmental performance of a property.

17.14 Solar Panels

An increasing number of homeowners are using solar thermal panels that produce hot water and photovoltaic panels that produce electricity. Solar systems can be installed in the roof space of a dwelling similar to roof lights. Any solar thermal panels that are installed on or in roofs should not unduly dominate the roof and should be sensitive to the character, colour and style of the existing roof. The Planning and Development Regulations 2007 (S.1 No. 83 of 2007) set out planning exemptions for micro-renewable energy technologies for domestic houses including solar panels, heating systems and wind turbines.

17.15 Green Roofs

A green roof is a roof of a building that is partially or completely covered with vegetation and soil, or a growing medium, planted over a waterproofing membrane. Green roofs benefit our environment by enhancing biodiversity, reducing flood risk (by absorbing heavy rainfall and reducing or slowing down run-off) and also provides insulation.

The Five Lamps Arts Festival is well established in the area and support for this Festival will continue for the foreseeable.	In Progress
3.11	A new Tourist Trail should be developed in association with the DDA, Tourism Ireland and Waterways Ireland.	3	The Monto Cultural Quarter has been referenced in recent published Fáilte Irl, Waterways Irl, and DCC tourism document "Water Edge". It is unlikely that the Monto would get the required support from Fáilte Ire. to develop as a stand alone tourist trail in the forseable future, however, it should benefit from the development work currently being undertaken on the broader strategy incorporating Dublin's Urban Waterscape from Custom House Quay to Dublin Bay.	In Progress
3.12	Social Cohesion	DCC will continue to develop and plan, in collaboration with the local community a series of annual events to bring the community together and to celebrate community diversity and to showcase community assets	3	Following approval of 2018 funding, a number of community events have taken place and planning is underway for further 2018 events, Garda Fun Run 5th July; Monto Festival 21st and 22nd July; Festival of Nations 18th August; Heritage Week 18th - 22 August; The Last Picnic 30th Sept; The Big Scream Halloween Festival; Christmas events. 3.17	Drug treatment and rehabilitation and related health services are well integrated and responsive to the local area need	Many issues evident in the area relating to addiction services and tackling drugs problem that should be addressed in the new National Drugs Strategy including access to detox beds, the effectiveness of long-term methadone maintenance, supporting families affected by addiction and alternatives to criminal sanctions for low level drug offences. It is recognised that some very specific local needs relating to the drugs problem will need to be targeted and addressed in the context of a local implementation plan.	1	Sub group 1 had identified key drugs issues to be advanced in partnership with NICLDTF DCC/Ana Liffey Assertive Case Management Pilot Project targeting street dealing blackspots Additional counselling and related services for people affected by drug addiction Extension to After Care Recovery Group to provide space for group work NIC Task Force to identify suitable initiative to target drug education in local schools D/Health working with NIC Task Force to commission research to identify needs linked to substance misuse and enhanced role for Task Force. NEIC Board has discussed request to separate Drugs discussion from Crime and Policing - under review in light of work above and offer from sub group to create a new working group.	In Progress

Not Proceeding
4.2		New safe pedestrian cycle and transport routes need to be incorporated within the area to increase usage of the streetscape, access to the area apart from drive through traffic and to encourage business to locate throughout the whole of North East Inner City.	4	This is a long-term action. Work has commenced internally within DCC on an NEIC "Public Realm Plan" which will incorporate a movement framework. A multi disciplinary internal working group has been established and a preliminary report will be brought to Sub-group 4 in the first instance in Q3 2018 and to the PIB in due course. The Royal Canal Cycleway Phase 2 (Sheriff St. to North Strand) is awaiting final statutory approvals from the Commission for Railway Regulation. The tender process has been completed for the construction so work can commence on site once the CRR approvals are in place.	In progress
4.3		Develop initiatives with resident associations and community organisations to take an active role in owning and maintaining these improved areas in cooperation with the DCC.	4	The Green Ribbon Initiative, a partnership between DCC and Sunflower Recycling has been partly up and running since October 2017 with all funding allocated in 2017 fully utilised. Funding proposal for continuation and further development was considered by Sub-group 4 at its meeting on 14/04/2018 and recommended to the NEIC Budget Sub-group for approval. The proposal was part approved so alternative arrangements are being explored by Dublin City Council to progress the development of this initiative.	Substantial progress
4.4	Visibly pleasant streets and environment	Transform the look and feel of the area by completion of immediate and urgent physical improvement works as identified and scheduled by DCC	4	In excess of €5 worth of NEIC funded physical improvement works have been carried out since the original allocation in 2016 under the headings of upgrade of sports and community facilities; road resurfacing; public lighting; public domain improvements i.e. cleaning, painting, minor landscaping works, hoardings, street art, shopfronts. This work is ongoing from current funding allocations as well as DCC's own resources.	In Progress

4.5	Vibrant and living area with new investment	DCC to develop a comprehensive refurbishment plan for the area in consultation with local residents, community and business sector to include viable funding mechanism in line with the LCDC Planning processes.	4	This is a long-term action that will be delivered locally in stages via the Public Realm Plan and the Greening Strategy in addition to non NEIC funded projects being carried out in the NEIC by DCC on social housing developments. This action will also be delivered through ongoing investments by the private sector via the planning process / City Development Plan in the medium to long term e.g. CIE lands, Docklands SDZ. The NEIC will also benefit from other strategic planning and investment projects currently underway e.g. Fáilte Irl. "Waters Edge" Tourism Framework and DCC Water Animation Strategy.	In Progress
4.6		Explore novel ways of funding such a refurbishment plan, for example, through · a levy on unused derelict sites in the area, · a dedicated contribution from all related NAMA transactions in the North / East Docklands and a specific contribution from the IFSC related businesses including the Central Bank. · E.G. a combined contribution of €10 million over one to three years to a "Renewal Fund" would regenerate and revitalise the urban landscape of the area	4	It is considered that this action is outside the scope of Sub-group 4	Outside scope of Sub-group
4.7	No visible signs of dereliction	Target derelict sites as part of the refurbishment plan	4	Work is underway and ongoing on this action within the scope of statutory powers available to DCC under the Derelict Sites Act 1990 with focus on selected sites e.g. 49/51 Amienst St.; 2 Annesley Place / 2 Spring Garden St.; 22B-25 Ballybough Rd., 15-16 Emerald St. & 42-43 Seville Place; Foley St. / Joyces Walk; NCR/Russell St. Jcn.; 45 Seville Place; 113-115 Sheriff St.; 6 Terrace Place. This work is being supplemented by pro-active engagement with owners of unsightly / vacant areas that may not be considered to be derelict within the definition in the Act.	In Progress
4.8	Page 72	Provide legal basis for use of CCTV and targeting of homeowners to tackle illegal dumping.	4	It is considered that this action is outside the scope of Sub-group 4. The challenges faced are not unique to the NEIC. It is already a complex legal area and the EU General Data protection Regulation, which are now in force will present new challenges in this regard. It is suggested that focus should shift to legislating, at primary level, for obligations of private rented landlords in relation to waste management.	Outside scope of Sub-group
4.9	Good social housing mix	DCC to lead on the development of a sustainable communities plan to address the high proportion of social supported tenants through public and private accommodation.	4	It is considered that this action is outside the scope of Sub-group 4. It is a multi-layered highly complex issue, not unique to the NEIC. A separate information report outlining the current situation with references to existing Government policies can be brought to a future meeting of the Programme Implementation Board if required.	Outside scope of Sub-group.
4.10	Developing Area with new businesses	Encourage and Incentivise the development of new residential and business units extending into the area beyond the Docklands to areas encompassing Gardiner Street, Mountjoy Square, Ballybough	4	It is considered that this action is outside the scope of Sub-group 4 may be more appropriate for consideration in the context of statutory City Development Plan 2016-2022 review process.	Outside scope of Sub-group.

The response to date has been positive with the FAI, Volleyball Ireland, Leinster Cricket, Tennis Ireland, Rowing Ireland, Leinster Rugby, Ladies Gaelic Football & Tug of War keen to get involved.

Response from Clubs to Date:

We issued a call out to sports clubs at the beginning of June, informing them what Dublin Sportsfest is all about, how they could get involved, why it would be in their interest to do so and to invite expressions of interest. The deadline is June 29th and so far we have had 5 formal expressions of interest although we expect that number to at least treble based on phone queries, e-mail correspondence & social media activity. We will not treat June 29th as a hard deadline & fully expect further engagement from clubs after this date. Some examples of responses to date include:

- Good Counsel GAA will host an open weekend on Sept 29th & 30th to include an Operation Transformation style programme, GAA skills demo, Puc Fada, Irish Dancing Classes, Meet & Greet with County Stars and to showcase their Healthy Clubs Initiative.
- St. Bernadette's Boxing Club, Santry, plan to host an army style assault course event on Portmarnock Beach on Sept 23rd. They will invite other sporting clubs from the locality to take part in 'club v club' and 'coach v coach' challenges.
- Ierne Social & Sports Club, Drumcondra, will host an open day on Sept 27th with free access to activities for older adults in the local community & beyond. Activities include pitch 'n' putt, bowls, tennis, snooker & table tennis.

Launch:

We will launch Dublin Sportfest during the first week of September @ Irishtown Stadium. The plan is to have Dublin Sportsfest ambassadors there on the day – a mix of well known sporting personalities and everyday people who use DCC sporting facilities on a regular basis – in addition to dignitaries & media. Taster sessions for various sports will be ongoing at the venue and we will invite local schools & other groups to ensure the venue is a hive of activity on the day!

Commercial Partner / Means of Promotion:

We are currently in talks with Lidl to see if they can come onboard as a partner with a view to providing refreshments at many of the Sportsfest events taking place during the week.

We will 'dress the city' by way of lamppost banners along a section of the quays and in other prominent places across the city such as O'Connell St, Merrion Square & Stephen's Green North. A large banner will cover the front of the DCSWP office building on Palace Street. A JC Decaux billboard campaign will run from 12th August – 8th Sept in addition to 20 poster sites (usually on hoarding surrounding derelict buildings or spaces). We will contact Dublin Bus, Luas & the National Transport Authority to see what possibilities there are for promotion on public transport.

Flyers will be distributed to libraries and similar outlets. Branded assets such as bunting, teardrop flags & t-shirts will be used at Sportsfest events taking place across the city. We will also run a 'reverse graffiti' guerrilla marketing campaign and distribute Sportsfest branded social media photo frame props to clubs for use at their event. Images can then be shared to maximise promotion.

The promotional campaign will take place across all social media platforms and some elements of radio in order to gain as much traction as possible for Dublin Sportsfest.

EVENTS

Please see below a flavour of some of the bigger events planned:

Sports Stadium @ Dalymount Park

Venue booked for Monday 24th September. We hope to host a Walking Football event for older adults on half the pitch and run cricket / tag rugby taster activations for schools on the other half. We hope to link with D.I.T. Grangegorman & the Bohemians Foundation on this event.

Dublin Sportsfest Seminar: Olympic Values & Insight into Elite Sport

In conjunction with our team of Boxing Development Officers (who deliver an annual Olympic Values Educational Programme to schools), we have provisionally booked the Wood Quay Venue on Tuesday Sept 25th (afternoon) to deliver a seminar broader in scope than the above. It will give an insight into elite sport and what it means to be an Olympian via presentations, motivational speeches and Q&A session.

We will obviously need some major sporting personalities (Olympians & other elite) to agree to appear on the day and if they could bring trophies or medals along all the better!

The invited audience will consist of TY students sourced via the GAISCE Awards or nominated directly by schools citywide. Capacity is 120.

Liffey Odyssey

We envisage a flotilla of craft (rafts, canoes, kayaks) to sail at a leisurely pace from the Rowing Centre in Islandbridge to the East Link. Our friends in Ballyfermot Youth Service Adventure Centre will lead this event and will also be responsible for promoting it amongst other the Youth Services citywide in an effort to recruit additional craft & also participants.

Docklands Event

Event to take place on Thursday 27th September (National Fitness Day) in partnership with Ireland Active. We are currently in the process of trying to secure the space on Grand Canal Quay, just in front of the Bord Gais Energy Theatre and have applied to the relevant management company for a permit for same.

The vision is for a day full of activity comprising of open air fitness classes (pre-registrations will be required), pre-work tai chi and post-work silent disco alongside some other ancillary fun activities. We will probably look to bring an Event Management Company on board. The event will be promoted amongst the corporate organisations and local businesses in the area in addition to the National College of Ireland.

Glow Sports

DCSWP will purchase two glow packs at a cost of approx. 2.5k each to enable us to deliver a number of 'glow' events during the week of Sportsfest and beyond. Glow football and Glow spin are the most popular manifestations to date but the concept is transferrable to many different sporting & fitness activities. It is hoped a number of DCC Sport & Recreation facilities will agree to host glow events during the week. This particularly appeals to teenage girls, a demographic we are keen to engage with.

Trinity Tag

Trinity College have agreed to expand a tag rugby tournament for freshers, scheduled for Wed Sept 26th, to include a number of local schools as their way of reaching out to the local community for Dublin Sportsfest.

NEIC

The Senior Sports Development Officer working in the area is currently exploring the possibility of delivering an Olympic Handball event and a special 'Gaelic for Mothers & Others' Programme during the week of Sportsfest.

Sports History

As part of the Festival of History, a talk on the 'Impact of World War 1 on Sport in Ireland' will take place in Pearse St. Library on Sept 29th. The organisers are happy for this to be added to the Dublin Sportsfest schedule. The possibility of doing some kind of a Sport History Cycling Tour is also being looked at.

It is delivered by our 5 dedicated IABA/DCSWP Development Officers via local schools (primary & TY level) in communities across the Dublin City area. Approx 2,000 young people take part each year.

The Programme is structured into Bronze (non contact), Silver and Gold phases. The first two phases focus on general strength & fitness, method and technique. The Gold phase introduces an element of contact to those participants who have displayed a particular talent & enthusiasm for the sport.

During the Summer months the IABA/DCSWP Development Officers take a break from Startbox to deliver an Olympic Values Education Programme in June. It includes 3-D Printed exact replicas of various Olympic medals. July & August are geared towards the Startbox Aviva Stadium Experience (which includes a stadium tour). These innovative programmes are aimed at primary schools for their end-of-term trips (OVEP) and then latterly to Youth Projects & Summer Camps throughout June & July. Groups attending this month include the Dublin North Central Mental Health Service, the Hay Project, St. John of Gods, Stoneybatter Youth Services, Bradóg Youth Services & NYP2.

Rowing Development officer Report

- Get Going ... Get Rowing - General
This initiative, jointly supported by DCSWP, Sport Ireland, Healthy Ireland, Active School Flag & Trinity College, has been successfully rolled out for a number of years by Rowing Ireland's Leinster Women's Development Officer, Michelle Carpenter. This is a 4/6 week school's programme for girls (second level). Rowing Ireland provide rowing machines and a community coach to the schools.

A Transition Year Programme compliments the above by giving students the opportunity to get on the first step of the coaching ladder and enabling them to be involved in a youth leadership role, working in a fun and interactive environment with younger students who will be taught values such as fair play, respect, dignity etc...

- 2017/2018 Review

So, we take stock of the Get Going...Get Rowing programme a few weeks from the end of what has been a bumper academic year in terms of introducing rowing to new schools and students.

We held our biggest ever #Blitzit event in Dublin City on Friday 10th November with over 900 students attending the third annual competition in Trinity College Dublin. We also had our #Blitzit Splash and Dash on the water in Grand Canal Dock on Friday 20th April 2018 which was a tremendous success. The sun shone, the weather stayed dry and we had 57 crews from our Dublin schools taking part, in addition to our partners who contested the partner's race. This event is the culmination of the indoor coaching and on-the-water sessions provided by the programme.

The Get Going ... Get Rowing programme will be complimented by Summer Camps for those students who wish to take their introduction to rowing to the next level and create a pathway to sport and physical activity for life.

Dublin City schools on board or in the process of coming on board for 2018/2019 are as follows:

St. Dominic's Cabra
Dominican College, Griffith Ave
Presentation, Terenure
