Crime Statistics for Quarter 3

Superintendent Timothy Burke for DMR South Central and Superintendent Paul Maher for DMR South

Issues discussed:

Drug-dealing / Anti-Social Behaviour

City Quay, Pearse St., Creighton St. and Grand Canal Dock
Aston Quay, Price's Lane and Temple Bar
Cabbage Patch, Long Lane & St Patrick's Park

Resourcing/Rosters issues

Once again, the need for greater visibility on the City Streets, to reinforce the public perception of safety.

Impact of negative media attention is damaging.

Members request that Community Policing, which works so well, be not under threat from new rosters, that patrols and numbers be maintained not diluted, as some changes are already being felt at local level.

Protests

Domestic Abuse/Assaults

Reductions in reports a result of new policy of good case management.

Issues around Dogs in Parks

Work ongoing with the Animal Welfare section.

Halloween

Operation Tombola plans in place and works already in progress.
