- 17 Motion in the name of Councillor Ciaran O'Moore

“That the City Council consider providing a cycle school in St Annes Park, Raheny, D5. With the construction of the S2S, the bike initiative and the increased numbers of cyclist. This would have many benefits including safe cycling, tackling childhood obesity and environmental campaigns. This motion has the full support of the previous instructors of the Clontarf cycling school who are still based in Clontarf Garda Station.”

- 18 Motion in the name of Councillor Ray McHugh

“That this committee request DCC to arrange with Electric Ireland for all EV (Electric Vehicle) charging points to be signposted and a reserved box painted.”
