| 5 | Motion in the name of Cllr Racheal Batten

"This council agrees that as of this day all Dublin City Council residential leases will include first right or refusal on sale of the said property. This clause will be inserted into all new lease agreements with an independent assessment of fair market value to take place. The landlord shall not commence placing the property on the market without such 60 days' notice been given to the council" | |
| 6 | Motion in the name of Cllr Janice Boylan

"That this council acknowledges that AHB's play a huge part in housing across all local authorities and that 1000's of people languishing on long housing waiting lists benefit greatly. However going forward we the Councillors of Dublin City | |

Council are demanding that any future arrangements to build AHB housing on public land must include a detailed memo of understanding. Too many times have housing advisors in some of the AHB's refused to engage meaningfully with elected Cllrs whilst we try assist our constituents, who are their tenants".
