VISUAL THINKING STRATEGIES

Visual Thinking Strategies is a research-based teaching methodology based on the work of cognitive psychologist, Abigail Housen and veteran museum educator Philip Yenawine that supports learner-centred thinking and feeling when looking at art objects.

Professional Educators –

From early years settings; primary school classroom teachers; secondary school (art) teachers; art educators (freelance museum and gallery educators, including teaching artists).

Potential EU Project Partnership

Erasmus+

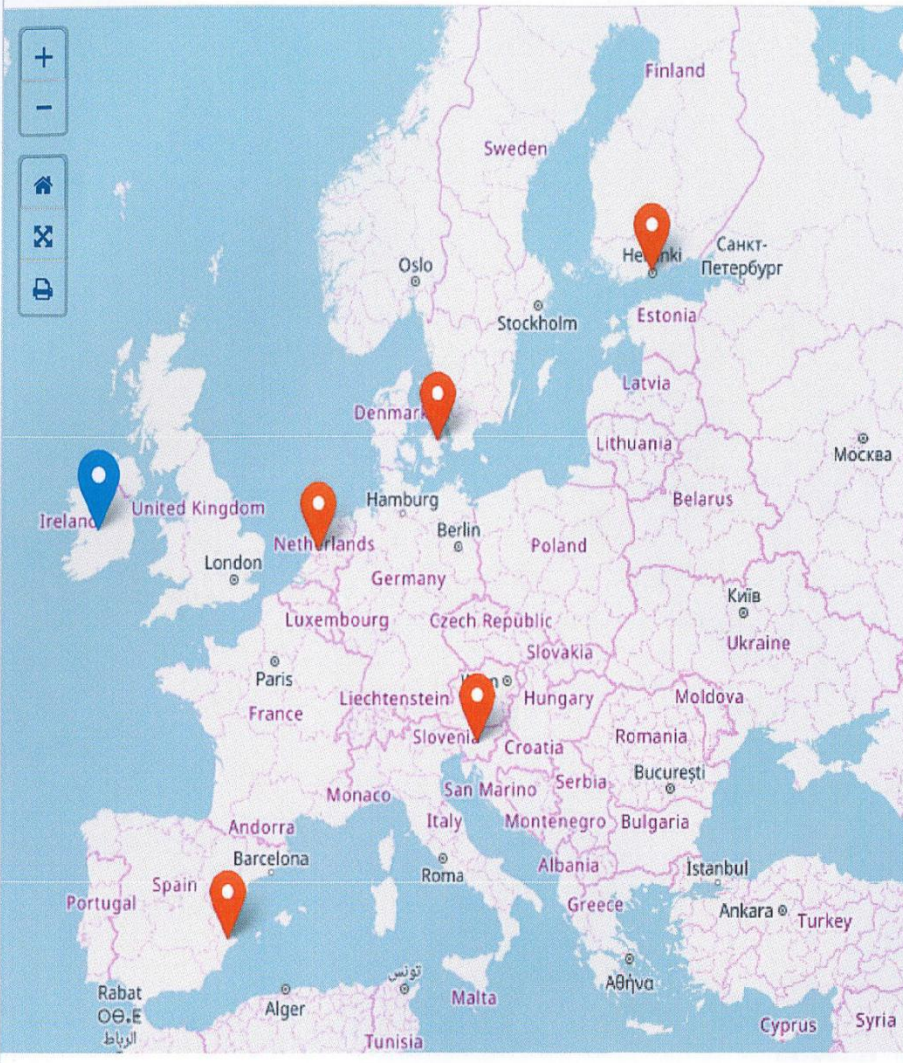

The image shows an HP monitor displaying a web page for an Erasmus+ project. The browser address bar shows the URL: <http://ec.europa.eu/programmes/erasmus-plus/projects/eplus-project-details/#project/4bb38769-5707-42b>. The page features a header with navigation links: LEGAL ISSUES, CONTACT US, LOGIN, and HELP. The main content area includes a large image of a diverse group of young people celebrating. Below the image, the project title is displayed: PERMISSION TO WONDER: SUPPORTING SCHOOLS TO IMPLEMENT THE VISUAL THINKING STRATEGIES METHOD TO ENHANCE LEARNING WITH VISUAL ARTS. It also lists the number of participating countries (6) with their respective flags. Two buttons are provided: DOWNLOAD AS PDF and VIEW PROJECT MAP. The project details section includes the start and end dates (06-11-2017 to 05-07-2020), the project reference (2017-1-IE01-KA201-025701), and the EU grant amount (244618 EUR). The coordinator is identified as DUBLIN CITY COUNCIL, with contact information for Wood Quay Civic Offices in Dublin 8. The organization type is listed as 'Local Public body'. A 'Partners' section is also visible at the bottom of the page. The monitor's taskbar at the bottom shows the Windows logo, the program name 'Erasmus+', and the system clock at 12:38. The monitor model 'HP L1706' is visible at the bottom left.
