- 3 Amendment to Standing Order No 16 - GDPR & Council Questions

Order: The Members agreed that Standing Order No. 16 should be amended by the inclusion of the following paragraph:

"In the interest of transparency it is desirable that all questions and answers be included on the agenda and minutes of meetings. Questions containing sensitive, personal details of individuals (name & address, health status etc) will have these aspects included "as details supplied". On all other questions, a Councillor may only request that a "street name/specific location" be submitted as "details supplied". The rest of the question and response will be included on the agenda and in the minutes of the meeting."

Recommended to Council.

- 4 Proposal to rename Hume Street as John Hume Street as referred by the City Council

Order: The Members recommended to Council not to proceed with the initiation of a plebiscite to rename Hume Street.

5 Correspondence from Óglaigh Náisiúnta na hÉireann - Organisation of National Ex-Service Personnel
