A cooking competition with a twist:

A TASTE OF KILMAINHAM - INCHICORE

...ive in an interesting and varied part of Dublin: Industrial mills ...d by the Camac and the hammering of iron in the railway works, ...echo of prisoners and returned soldiers in the Royal Hospital, ...nd Barracks and the Gaol, not to mention being one of Ireland's ...lticultural districts. This makes for some interesting flavours: Can ...reate a dish that reflects some of this and cook it with locally ...sourced or locally bought ingredients?

Great Place Award

Kilmainham Civic Space is a new public place in a historic neighbourhood in Dublin. It is located at the western end of the Dublina, an east-west cultural alignment, which runs from Trinity College, via Christchurch Cathedral, the Guinness Storehouse, the Irish Museum of Modern Art at the Royal Hospital Kilmainham to Kilmainham Gaol and on to the War Memorial Gardens at Islandbridge.

These public realm improvements were partly generated by the mixed use development, on the site of the former Rowntree Mackintosh chocolate factory, completed during the Celtic Tiger era and the commemorations to mark the centenary of the 1916 Easter Rising.
