1. The Lord Mayor opened the meeting by outlining the reason for the meeting and how it would proceed. The meeting was convened on foot of the following request signed by Councillors Naoise Ó Muirí, Ciaran O'Moore, Sean Paul Mahon, Damian O'Farrell, Jane Horgan-Jones and Deirdre Heney – "Pursuant to Standing Orders and Local Government Legislation the following Members of Dublin City Council request the Lord Mayor to convene a special meeting of the City Council to assess and debate the implications of the recent An Bord Pleanála decision regarding the lands east of St. Pauls School for Z15 zoned lands across the City and for the Development Plan"
2. Mr John O'Hara, City Planner, then gave an outline of the background to the recent An Bord Pleanála decision regarding the lands east of St. Paul's School and an overview of the wider implications for Z15 zoned lands across the City and for the Development Plan. He also outlined methods of protecting Z15 zoned
