

Draft Dublin City Council Waste (Separation, Storage and Presentation of Household and Commercial Waste) Bye laws 2018

Dublin City Council has drafted new Waste Bye Laws to replace the existing Dublin City Council Bye Laws for the Storage, Presentation and Collection of Household and Commercial Waste 2013.

These draft Bye Laws are proposed in the context of a requirement to review existing bye laws due to changes to legislation governing waste generally and the policy action C.2.1 of the Eastern Midland Regional Waste Plan.

“To review/introduce presentation of waste bye-laws across the region, to maximise the quantity and quality of recyclable waste collected and amend/replace/introduce new bye-laws if appropriate”

The key issues that are provided for in the new draft Waste Bye Laws are:

- The obligation to engage with an Authorised Collector or use an Authorised Facility and retain documentation to prove such arrangements are in place for specific amounts of time
- Specific requirements relating to multi user and multi let properties
- Continuation of Designated Collection Days
- Continued designation of the Central Commercial District with specific requirements for householders and business within this area.
- Acknowledgement and facilitation of bin sharing arrangements for householders

Additionally the draft Waste Bye Laws provide for the control of:

- How waste containers are maintained and stored
- Where bags or sacks may be used as waste containers
- Specific times for presentation of waste both within and outside the Central Commercial District
- Segregation and Contamination of Household Waste

The Draft Bye Laws are informed by significant preparatory work undertaken by the Eastern Midland Regional Waste Planning Office including extensive legal opinion obtained in an effort to ensure that a consistent approach to management of the segregation, storage and presentation of household and commercial waste is achieved both regionally and nationally.

At the Environment Strategic Policy Committee meeting held on 27th June 2018 it was agreed to refer the draft Bye Laws to the next meeting of the full City Council to seek approval for the initiation of the statutory public consultation period
