Luke Kelly Statue - Sheriff Street 2019

President Michael D. Higgins unveiled two statues honouring one of Dublin's most famous sons, musician and activist Luke Kelly.

A marble portrait head of Luke Kelly, was created by portrait artist Vera Klute, and will be situated on the Royal Canal. Vera's piece which is two metres high, was unanimously selected as the winner of a competition established by the then Lord Mayor of Dublin Christie Burke, in 2014.
