Halloween 2020

Stockpiling of bonfire materials:

Dublin City Council is once again promoting a safe and enjoyable Halloween for everyone. Bonfires are illegal and Dublin City Council is asking the public to report any stockpiled materials that they become aware of by:

- Calling Dublin City Council's Customer Services Centre (01) 222 2222 or after hours at 1800 293949
- Reporting 'bonfire materials' online at <http://www.dublincity247.ie/>
- Central area reports of bonfire materials litter.central@dublincity.ie detailing the exact location of the materials.
- Type of materials and a rough estimate of the quantity, e.g. 10 pallets and 4 truck tyres.

- If possible a photograph of the location and materials.

We need the public's help to do this and we are calling on people to report stockpiling of bonfire material to us as soon as possible so we can remove it safely. We have received great assistance from the public in recent years and we are calling on people to assist us again in 2020.

We acknowledge the excellent cooperation received from An Garda Síochána in this work, which is essential to the success of these operations to keep everyone safe this Halloween.

Community Halloween Events:

Planning for The Big Scream and The Cauldron of Smithfield are progressing insofar as possible within Covid 19 public health guidelines.

Finalised plans for events will be distributed to Councillors closer to the date.
