Amending the Housing (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2009.

Dear Minister,

I write on behalf of Dublin City Council's Housing Strategic Policy Committee with regard to a motion that was agreed at the June meeting dated Wednesday 9th.

The context of the motion is to ask you to consider amending the Housing (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2009. The amendment would be to allow people who having been several years on a local authority housing list and having been reassessed, or having got married, now find themselves marginally over the income level and are therefore forced off the list, without recourse to appeal, to remain on local authority housing lists.

Thank you for your attention on this matter and I look forward to your response.

Yours sincerely,

Cllr. Alison Gilliland
Chairperson, Dublin City Council Strategic Policy Committee for Housing
