It was proposed by the Labour Party, Green Party and Social Democrats that Dublin City Council determines, in accordance of the provisions of Section 20 of the Finance (Local Property Tax) Act 2012 (as amended), that the basic rate of local property tax should stand at its baseline level for 2022 in respect of relevant residential properties situated in the administrative area of Dublin City Council. It was proposed by Fianna Fail that Dublin City Council determines, in accordance of the provisions of Section 20 of the Finance (Local Property Tax) Act 2012 (as amended), that the basic rate of local property tax should be varied downwards by 15% per cent for 2022 in respect of relevant residential properties situated in the administrative area of Dublin City Council. The motion was put to a vote and was carried. Details of the vote are contained within Appendix B to these minutes.

Sinn Féin, Fine Gael and the Independent Group all submitted motions which called for a 15% downward variation of the basic rate of the Local Property Tax. However, as the substance of these motions had already been agreed it was not necessary to put them.
