RE: Resolution of Galway County Council - Boycott on goods from occupied territories

A chara,

At a recent meeting of Galway County Council, the following resolution was passed:

"That following the correspondence from South Dublin County Council and this council's recent motion that this council also agrees to write to the Department of the Taoiseach, other local authorities and Retail Ireland calling on Irish and international supermarkets operating here to join the boycott on goods from occupied territories."

I would be obliged if you would consider this request and revert to me on the above so that I can advise the Elected Members.

Mise, le meas,

Ms. J. Brann
County Secretary
