Réalt Na Mara, 50th anniversary celebrations

Dublin City Council in partnership with Dublin Port and the Dockers Society hosted a commemoration event on Saturday, 24th September to mark the 50th anniversary of the Réalt Na Mara memorial statue at North Bull Wall in Dollymount.

This commemoration event was attended by the Lord Mayor of Dublin, Caroline Conroy, local Councillors and representatives from Dublin City Council, Dublin Port and the Dockers Society. A wreath laying ceremony took place at the statue followed by a brief historical talk and light refreshments were served afterwards in the Clontarf Yacht and Boat Club.

The next phase of the refurbishment works will begin in the coming months. This will include the suitable replacement of the mosaic at the base of the statue.
