ORDER: Agreed.

Emergency Motion in the Name of Cllr. Ray McAdam

That the Area Committee is provided with a further comprehensive update by the Waste Management Section detailing the steps being taken to ensure the wishes of this Committee are honoured in the continued provision of recycling services as currently in situ at the Grangegorman Bring Centre in the Dublin 7 area and that no break in service provision be permitted while a new location is secured.

ORDER: Agreed.

Emergency Motion in the Name of Cllr. Ray McAdam

That the Area Committee requests a full report from the Parks Department as to the holding of concerts this coming June in Fairview Park; what conditions have been attached to the permission for these concerns; what mitigation measures have been determined upon for implementation to address the issues and concerns raised by North Strand residents at the time of the concerts last summer and to outline the approvals process sought for these concerts.

ORDER: Agreed.

The following motions to the Area Managers were tabled.

Item 1

Motion in the name of Councillor Janet Horner

That the City Council shall prepare a regeneration proposal to refurbish the former Married Quarters Building on Infirmary Road as an Arts/Community building. This proposal shall include architectural and engineering drawings as well as funding proposals and shall revert to this committee on progress every quarter.
