Motions

13. Motion in the name of Councillor Patrick Costello (deferred from meeting of 14th November, 2018):

“That this committee agrees to amend Dublin City Council street nameplate policy so that where a street is named in honour of someone a secondary sign of similar design is provided which gives a brief one sentence description and their dates of birth and death are included. This is standard practice in other cities, such as Paris for example, and will ensure the knowledge of the person honoured is carried on along with their name.”

Motion deferred.

14. Motion in the name of Councillor Ciarán Cuffe.

“That all five and six day operation bike lanes be changed to seven day operation”

Motion agreed.
