
Breviate of the Planning and Urban Form Strategic Policy Meeting Held on 30th June 2020

Cllr. Ray McAdam welcomed Cllr. Declan Meenagh who was appointed filling the vacancy created on the resignation of Cllr. Jane Horgan -Jones.

The Chair welcomed Ms. Marion Jammet and Mr. Pat Barry from The Irish Green Building Council and suggested that they give their presentation first.

1) Minutes of Meeting 25th February

Minutes: Agreed

2) Matters arising

Agreed: Cllr. Dermot Lacey's 2 items to be added to the Agenda for September meeting

3) Irish Green Building Council

Presentation given by Ms. Marion Jammet Business Development Manager and Mr. Pat Barry CEO Irish Green Building Council, which highlighted and explained:

- Role of The Irish Green Building Council
- Net Zero Carbon Commitment at City Scale
- New buildings, commitment that all should operate to Net Zero Carbon standard by 2030 and existing must operate to that standard by 2050. This is in response to the Paris Agreement to restrict a global warming increase to below 1.5 degrees.
- An explanation was given for embodied carbon and how it is associated with construction and accounts for 11% of Global emissions. The best way of avoiding emissions is to reuse an existing building rather than demolish it.
- What are Green Homes and why it is important to go beyond energy efficiency?
- Home Performance Index and what are the benefits for public housing and for green gain in planning. Dublin City Council is implementing as standard on all social housing tenders since 2019.
- Recommendations were made for the Development Plan.

Discussion followed and some of the Members had been to Helsinki and Vienna and were very impressed with the commitment to Net Zero Carbon by 2035. Pat and Marion addressed questions raised by the members.

Presentation Noted.

4) Preparation of Development Plan

The Dublin City Planner gave a presentation on “Introduction to the Review Process”
The review of the plan will commence mid. December, due to pandemic legislative changes allow for a slightly later commencement date.
