5	7018728		Pedestrian Crossing	NORTH CIRCULAR ROAD (C)	Dublin 1	regarding crossings along this stretch of road.	Not Recommended	In terms of pedestrian crossings there is a soon to be completed pedestrian crossing at Parkhouse / Annamoe. In addition to this, there are signalised pedestrian crossings at Hanlons Corner, Charleville Road, at the Luas stop, and near the junction with Cabra Road. In terms of pedestrian crossings the North Circular Road is quite well served along this section in terms of meeting pedestrians desire lines. There are currently no plans for any additional crossings, however if there is a specific location that the TD would like to raise, this can be investigated further.	TD	20/01/2021	0
