Housing Matters in the North East Inner City

Choice Based Lettings

The First round of Choice Based Lettings for 2023 saw 789 applicants for 14 properties. Offers have been made and viewings are ongoing at the time of writing. A new round offering up to six properties will be announced in the coming weeks.

Following request from Cllr. Costello a full breakdown of CBL's offered in 2021- 2022, and to date in 2023 are included in this report.

Ballybough House/Matt Talbot Court

The stairways and communal areas of Ballybough House have been power washed and the moss and weeds removed from the communal and play areas. The stairwells of Matt Talbot Court were also power washed.

Croke Villas:

Due to ongoing issues with the remaining decanted block of Croke Villas, CAO Housing initiated remedial action to protect the property and the public. This involved a removal of the large scale dumping in the forecourt of the complex and the boarding up of the windows, many of which had been smashed creating a danger to the public. Security signage has also been erected on the perimeter fencing.

Before

After

Gloucester Place:

The instillation of railings between Gloucester Place and the Church Carpark has been completed. A mesh will be added to the structure to enhance its sturdiness and to facilitate the residents to mount trellises to which flowers and planters can be fixed.

Matt Talbot Court:

Following consultations a contractor has been engaged to install new locking mechanisms to the entrance doors at Matt Talbot Court in order to enhance the overall security of the complex. If successful we may roll this system out in other complexes.

Community Development Matters in the Central Area

Eastwall Pride of Place:

The Eastwall Pride of Place group meet regularly and carry out clean up days throughout their area.

They also look after planter units and small green spaces.

The group have recently purchased a new shed and it has been positioned in the car park of the Sean O'Casey Centre.

The shed was purchased using funding allocated through the Tom Clarke Bridge Fund. The group receive regular stocks of tools, litter bags etc and the Area Office arrange collections of rubbish after each of their clean-up days.

The Community Section is in regular contact with this group.

Buckingham Street:

The Area Office is working with the Management Company at Buckley Hall and the Adventure Sports Project in order to green this street.

Buckley Hall recently completed work on the front of their building facing both Railway Street and Buckingham Street. Additional planter units will be placed on both sections of Buckingham Street and will be cared for by these two organisations.

Church Street East Traffic Calming:

Following a door to door survey of all one hundred homes in this area, a total of thirty two responses were received in writing with twenty nine in favour. The area office will write to the residents with the results of the survey before installing the proposed traffic calming measures for a six month trial period.

Hardwicks Street Flats

A new Residents Committee has been formed for this estate. The group has met with the Community Section and the Housing Office. Arrangements are in place for a new Summer Project and regular clean up events.

Ballybough Pride of Place:

Ballybough Prude of Place continue to go from strength to strength. They meet every two weeks to clean up their area.

Pictured opposite is Aideen Lenard who has taken charge of re stocking the groups own planter units.

The Area Office will position two additional high value planter units in this area bring the total to fourteen. These units are serviced regularly under contract.

An additional three units will be placed at Summerhill Primary Health Centre.

Community Consolation @ Northwall:

Dublin City Council is proposing to lease some additional space at St Laurence Place East to St Laurence O'Tooles Girls National School. A consultation evening was held on Monday 27th February. Sixty people attended this evening a positive response was agreed.

Summer Projects:

Work has commenced with eight groups that are proposing to run Summer Projects. The groups will receive Child Protection training and will go through a Garda Clearance process in time for the summer months.

The projects are organised in conjunction with Cross care and the Central Area Community Development Section.

This year we will have four new groups involved; Hardwick Street, St Mary's Mansions, Peadar Kearney House and Champions Avenue.
